

English

Classic poems for children. Analysing different poetic forms and their effectiveness. Using different techniques to create poetry of their own.

Class novel Miss Peregrine's home for peculiar children.
Ongoing: Spelling, punctuation and grammar.
Preparation for SATs

The Learning Challenge™
CURRICULUM

Ghyll Royd School Form 6 Summer 2017 Termly Overview

Mathematics

Place value and rounding
Problem solving using all four operations
BODMAS
Fractions/decimals and percentages
Area of parallelograms and triangles
Algebra
Number sequences
Ratio and proportion
Calculating angles
Circles
Properties of 3d shape

ICT

This term, Form 6 will be focusing on an 'End of Ghyll Royd' project.

Our local area - Ilkley

Science

Animals including humans

The children will discover how humans change over their lifetime including:

- The 6 stages of a human lifecycle.
- Physical changes
- Puberty
- Emotional changes
- Healthy choices
- Good mental health

Humanities

History – The history of Ilkley, famous people of Ilkley, famous events, Roman Ilkley. The history of the cup and ring stones on Ilkley moor.

Geography – The local area, how it compares to other areas. Geography of Ilkley and its place in Wharfedale. Compare and contrast Ilkley to Robin Hood's Bay and the East coast.

RE, Social Education and MFL

RE – Hinduism

Christianity

PSHCE – Transition to senior school

Puberty and body changes

MFL - In this Unit children will learn names of Subjects they like or dislike, subjects or types of music and they will express opinions about school subjects and different types of music. They will learn to count in tens up to 100.

PE and Creative Arts and Design

PE – cricket skills and rounders

Music – Carnival of the Animals by Saint Saens- a creative response to his collection of pieces. Structure-the exploration of Rondo Form the importance of contrast and repetition. Mood music an atmospheric response to the story of Jane Eyre.

Art – the children will be making a 'Wharfedale Quilt' showing local landmarks around Burley, Ben Rhydding and Ilkley